RC Ambala Hosts Spirited Discussion on "Stray Dog vs Human Life"

In response to the growing concerns around human-animal conflict, especially in urban areas, the Rotary Club of Ambala organized a thought-provoking debate on the controversial topic: "Stray Dog vs Human Life?".

The event brought together diverse voices to discuss public safety, animal rights, and ethical responsibilities in a civil society. The session began with a welcome speech by Club President Rtn. Dr. Sanjeev Goel. He emphasized the importance of dialogue in shaping humane yet practical community policies. "Rotary has always believed in service above self – but service must also mean safety, compassion, and solutions," he noted.

Affirmative Side: Human Life Takes Priority arguing in favor of prioritizing human life.

Rtn. Subhash Tandan, Rtn. Sandeep Singh Chopra, Rtn. Dr. C M Kakkar, Rtn. Surinder Goel and Rtn. Ankush Gupta raised concerns over increasing incidents of dog bites, rabies cases, and the fear among children and the elderly.

Key Arguments: Public Safety First: Speakers emphasized the government's responsibility to ensure the safety of its citizens.

Health Hazards: Statistics on dog bite injuries and rabies-related deaths were presented to support stricter control of stray populations. Urban Overpopulation of Strays: Unchecked breeding and insufficient sterilization programs were criticized as root causes.

Opposition Side: Protecting Stray Dogs with Humane Measures: On the other hand, Rtn. Shagun Das, Rtn. Rishi Jiwan Gupta, Rtn. Gaurav Gandhi and

RC Ambala Hosts Spirited Discussion on "Stray Dog vs Human Life"

Rtn. R K Sharma argued that the lives of stray animals are also sacred and must be protected under The Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act and municipal animal birth control rules.

Key Arguments: Ethical and Legal Duty: India's legal framework mandates humane treatment of animals, including stray dogs.

Ineffective Culling: Historical examples showed that culling stray dogs does not sustainably reduce populations.

Need for Public Awareness: Poor waste management and lack of sterilization awareness were highlighted as more significant issues than the presence of dogs themselves.

Audience Interaction and Conclusion: The debate saw an engaged audience, with many contributing personal stories – both of stray dog attacks and of stray adoptions that changed lives.

The moderator Rtn. Parul Gandhi wrapped up the session by summarizing the need for balanced, humane, and legally compliant solutions such as:

Improved implementation of ABC (Animal Birth Control) Public awareness on coexisting responsibly. Better waste management Government accountability in urban planning and stray dog control.

Final Thoughts: While no unanimous conclusion was reached, the debate successfully highlighted the complexity of the issue.

The Rotary Club of Ambala pledged to submit a summary of the discussion to local authorities and NGOs, urging collaborative action that values both human life and animal welfare.

The Veritable Ambassador of Goodwill

Deputy Governor, RI District 3080, Rtn Naresh Bhardwaj of RC Ambala, a veritable ambassador of goodwill to Sri Lanka, during his recent visit, attended a joint meeting of 3 clubs.

After giving his eloquent introduction, he exchanged club flags with Rotary Club of Colombo West & Rotary Club Of Colombo, R I District 3220 fostering enduring bonds between the clubs.

He also visited the revered Sita Mata Temple, Known as Ashok Vatika at Nuwara Eliya, Sri Lanka. He got profoundly impressed to witness the exemplary job by Rotary Club of Delhi City, India with the support of Rotary Club Nuwara Eliya in renovating the SHREE SEETHAIAMMAN TEMPLE POND. Honourable Prime Minister of Sri Lanka inaugurated the project. It's a sterling example of Rotary's theme "Unite for Good" in action.

To
The President,
Rotary Club, Ambala

Subject: Thank You for Conducting CPR Demonstration

Respected Sir,

On behalf of B.D. Senior Secondary School, Ambala Cantt, I extend our heartfelt gratitude to the Rotary Club Ambala for organizing a valuable CPR Demonstration in our school on 13/8/25.

The session proved to be extremely informative and practical. Our students of Classes 10, 11, and 12 actively participated and gained essential life-saving knowledge. The demonstration by the esteemed doctors was clear, effective, and inspiring.

We deeply appreciate the efforts of the Rotary Club for taking this initiative. Such training not only builds awareness but also prepares our youth to act responsibly in emergencies.

We look forward to more collaborations in the future for the holistic development of our students.

With sincere thanks,

Principal
