MEETING NO.3840

The Rotary Meeting of 9th October 2025 highlighted a Talk on Rotary International's Peace Building and Conflict Resolution Efforts, by PP Shailendra Karanwal emphasizing on Rotary's proactive approach to fostering peace beyond mere absence of war. Speaking to fellow Rotarians, the speaker underscored Rotary's unique strategy of addressing root causes of conflicts like poverty, inequality, and lack of dialogue. Key highlights of his talk included:

Rotary Peace Centres: 7 global centres in universities offer Master's programs and certificates training peace fellows in conflict resolution.

Community Projects: Local Rotary clubs promote dialogue through service initiatives like literacy drives and water projects.

Youth Engagement: Programs like Interact, Rotaract and RYLA nurture young leaders in empathy and inclusiveness.

Partnerships: Collaborations with United Nations and NGOs amplify Rotary's peace-building impact.

The talk concluded that peace is a journey Rotary pursues through service, justice, compassion, and dialogue, quoting peace as something "you make, do, are, and give away." Fellow Rotarians were urged to continue building a world where cooperation replaces conflict.

PP Kuldip Mathur gave a befitting vote of thanks to our eloquent speaker PP Shailendra Karanwal
