Such is the occasion that impels us to go back & relive special moments of childhood that has somewhere played a major role in carving our personality as it is today. And that my dear friends is nothing but, the lessons of life we learnt from our mentors ..., our teachers.

Rotary Mussoorie annually celebrates the day of honoring the 'Gurus' on Teacher's Day. The evening at Tavern on 5th Sept'24, witnessed colors of joy in the eyes of such 'Gurus' invited by Rotary for honouring them for their lifelong efforts. President Sanjay Jain called the meeting to order.

PP Vipul Mittal Director Community Service gave a warm welcome to all the guests present.

PP Nitish Mohan Aggarwal Chairman TEACH, conducted the entire event and started very aptly by sharing the importance of Teacher's Day, that is celebrated in memory of the birth anniversary of Dr. Savepalli Radhakrishnan as he wished that it be celebrated, by offering teachers a feel of Gratitude, as they play a crucial role in people's lives.

Teacher's who were honored on the occasion by Rotary's 'Nation Builder Award' were invited from various schools of Mussoorie. Amongst whom few were Madhukar Gunsola, Anamika Chaudhary, Anil K. Sengar, Rekha Pundir, Pawanjit Kaur, Meeta Sharma, Ruchi Chowdhary.

Quoting a line from it "Mai aur sadak, ek jaise kehlate hain, hum dono wahin rehte hain., lekin sabko ko manzil tak pahaunchaate hain ..!"
