Helping The Needy

- 04 April 2025

RCNM Hillside has extended a helping hand by making a part payment of school fees for a young girl from an underprivileged background. This timely support has allowed the student to continue her education, easing the financial burden on her family.

The initiative reflects RCNM Hillside's commitment to empowering the next generation, especially young girls, through access to education. The family expressed deep gratitude, calling the gesture a blessing in a difficult time.

Even small acts of support like this can make a big difference — one child, one future at a time.

Cloth Donation Drive

- 06 April 2025

The Rotarians of RCNM Hillside organized a cloth donation drive at Girija Old Age Home, aiming to support and bring comfort to the elderly residents. The donated clothes were handed over personally, along with warm conversations and heartfelt smiles. The gesture was appreciated by the home's residents and reflected the Rotarians' ongoing commitment to service and compassion.

Annadaan And Vidyadaan

- 13 April 2025

On the auspicious occasion of Baisakhi, RCNM Hillside organized a distribution drive in one of the slum areas of Panvel, reaching out to underprivileged children with stationery kits and nutritious snacks. The initiative aimed to encourage education while also addressing the basic nutritional needs of the children. The drive was filled with smiles, hope, and the spirit of giving, showcasing RCNM Hillside's dedication to making a positive impact in the community.

Handwashing Awareness Activity By Tiny Tots

- 17 April 2025

Rotary Club of Navi Mumbai Hillside, Innerwheel Club of New Bombay Hillside along with interns from D.Y. Patil Hospital, conducted a handwashing awareness activity for children at a local Anganwadi, Nere Village. Through simple demonstrations and interactive learning, children were taught the importance of hand hygiene. The session aimed to instill healthy habits at an early age, promoting cleanliness and disease prevention.
