TAKE ACTION: Engage Rotary, Change Lives

Dear Friends,

January is the month of Vocational Services - as part of this one talks about keeping high ethical standards in your profession.

Rotary's 4 way test reflects the high standard of work ethics, we must all imbibe in all our action as Rotarians, not just in our profession but within Rotary & otherwise in our daily lives too.

It would be great if seasoned Rotarians introduce the new members to the Four Way Test and the Rotary Code of Conduct.

As part of this philosophy of Vocational Services, there is an attempt to have members from different professions so that we get to learn and respect different perspectives and encourage diversity.

Even when we implement projects, we hold ourselves accountable to high standards of integrity - which results in donor partners coming back to work for us.

Let us keep ourselves open to learning, discovering and growing!

Yours in Rotary

R.I PRESIDENT Speaks

R. GORDON R. MCLNALLY

Dear fellow Rotary members,

In difficult times like these, it's impossible to avoid feeling heartbroken over the devastation and loss of life caused by war and destruction.

Rotary always stands against harming and displacing civilian populations and using armed aggression instead of pursuing peaceful solutions. We advocate for the observance and respect of international law. We believe in strong action to defend and promote peace, even in the darkest of times.

But we also take our position as an international, nonpolitical, nonreligious organization seriously. To respect the global perspectives and experiences of our members, and to work most effectively in our peacebuilding efforts, we do not choose sides in conflicts.

Rotary is made up of 1.4 million people in communities all over the globe who are united in our commitment to building a peaceful world. We strive to ensure that our words and actions prioritize the health and safety of our global membership and the communities where we live and serve.

Our members seek to offer humanitarian assistance to those affected by conflict, and our global reach requires that we promote peacebuilding and conflict prevention with cross-cultural, cross-border connections and friendship through Rotary.

For decades, Rotary has harnessed these connections to carry out service projects, support peace fellowships and scholarships, and establish programs like Rotary Peace Centers to help build lasting peace. Our members also take action to promote Positive Peace, addressing the underlying causes of conflict, including poverty, discrimination, ethnic tension, lack of access to education, and unequal distribution of resources.

Rotary members who wish to wage peace can use district grants and Rotary Foundation global grants to support projects with other Rotary members that help refugees and displaced people, provide medical support, and more worldwide. Members can also work with or join peace-focused Rotary Action Groups, Friendship Exchanges, Fellowships, and intercountry committees. And District Designated Funds or district cash can support our peacebuilding and conflict prevention efforts.

Members and nonmembers alike can learn more about peacebuilding through the Rotary Positive Peace Academy, a free online course available to anyone with an internet connection. You can find it at positivepeace.academy/rotary.

There is no denying that incidents of violence and atrocities being perpetuated around the world seem to be escalating. Global peace is fragile, and the stakes are getting higher.

Still, we know that it is possible to bring all people together to work toward a shared goal. Rotary members do so every day in every part of the world. May our ability to unify in common purpose be a spark that helps light the path out of these dark days.

Together, let's Create Hope in the World

'TAARE ZAMEEN PER' - POWAI FEST 2023

26th Jan 2024

Vivek Govilkar

Under the bright sun, a cool afternoon, beautiful lawns and colourful atmosphere - What a way to celebrate our 75th Republic Day.

Rotary Club of Bombay Powai has been organizing 'Taare Zameen Par' (TZP), the Painting and Crafts competition for more than a decade. It is one of the most popular and awaited annual events in Powai. Under the umbrella of Powai Fest, TZP is typically held towards the end of January or early February every year. This year, the event was held on 26th January 2024, our 75th Republic Day. Inspired by the famous movie by the same name, TZP is primarily the celebration of colours and also of hope, creativity and family bonding. Over the years, TZP has created a rich legacy.

This year we saw a record participation in TZP. This was in line with our President Kamalani Pathak's vision for diversity, equity and inclusion. More than 500 participants including pre-schoolers, school-going children, early teens, all the way to senior citizens and grandparents came together to spend the afternoon in a very fruitful and satisfying way. In some cases, we even saw the entire enthusiastic families try their hand at painting. TZP has been a popular platform for the local Powai kids from Hiranandani, Rajeja, Nahar, Lake Homes and other colonies and schools. This year, we saw much greater participation from various NGOs from and around Powai, thanks to the generous sponsors supporting and encouraging them.

A significant share of participation was by the students affiliated to several NGOs. They included Asha NGO, Buniyaad, Ekta Mahila Samiti Abhyasika, Hiranandani Basti Workers' Children, Khel Khel Mein Centre, Aarey Colony, SEED Foundation, Teach for India and Udaan. There was also a big representation from the schools from the outskirts of Powai, like Vivek Vidyalaya, Adarsh Vidyalaya, Al Rahman School, Dnyan Mandir, Green Lawns School, Mother Teresa School, Milind Vidyalaya, Ravi Kiran Vidyalaya, and Shobha Devi Singh Vidya Mandir.

'TAARE ZAMEEN PER' - POWAI FEST 2023

26th Jan 2024

As usual, the topics for painting were given on the spot. Children let their imagination run wild to illustrate:

- World of Machines and Robotics
- Nature is Grand and Beautiful
- Celebration with Family and Friends
- Bedtime Stories and My Favourite Character from Them
- Mera Bharat Mahan

The younger kids were given stencils and they were required only to add colours to the printed pictures. In the Crafts category, participants were asked to use only dry, household waste creatively to make some useful or decorative objects.

The final outcome was stunning. All the winners were students and amateurs, but they produced great art work like professionals. Many people expressed the feeling that these paintings deserve an even higher-level platform and exposure to reach larger audiences beyond the residents of Powai.

We were lucky to have sponsors like Maple DTI- Apple Premium Reseller and Electronic Payment and Services Ltd. The occasion was graced by our Guests of Honour, Mr Manil Shetty (Founder & CEO Maple), Mr Mani Mamallan (Founder & CEO, EPS) and Ms Vidya Mamallan (Co-Founder & Director EPS). Their whole-hearted and enthusiastic participation provided great encouragement to the participants. Jayman Larin Khona of Anmol Collection Art & Frames, IIT Market has been supporting the event over the years by sponsoring the stationery and supplies. This year, there was an added attraction of lucky draw sponsored by Maple DTI. The two lucky winners took home the much sought after iPads.

'VOICE OF POWAI' - POWAI FEST 2023

Nov - Dec 2023

Anindita Roy

"When you put yourself on the line in a race and expose yourself to the unknown, you learn things about yourself that are very exciting."

—Doris Brown Heritage, women's distance running pioneer

Powai Night Run, a project which was first piloted during the Dream Year, finally came to fruition during the Incredible Year Powai Fest in 2023 -24. After a long wait and many hours of discussion, President Kamalini and the Incredible BOD greenlighted the Powai Night Run, as a new addition to its annual flagship event Powai Fest. The Night Run was positioned to be an exciting and engaging community activity, intended to attract new audience to the Powai Fest.

As the proverbial saying goes, the unknown truly makes you dig deep and brings you face to face with hidden reserves of strength, intuition, and many learnings. So was the case here.

The Night Run project was led by Anindita Roy, and a dedicated team was assembled, with the mission of making the Run a success. With a month left to go for the event, the planning and execution runway was extremely short. Yet, the team took up the challenge of making it happen. The Goal was to maximize participation in the Night Run and fund it through sponsorships. The Run with its catchy Light the Night theme had an innovative night format, the core concept was of a Family Run where entire families could run together and all this, in support of Rotary Powai's women empowerment projects. These messages became the key anchors of the Run campaign.

Meticulous planning, daily follow-ups and deliberations with the Run partner, took center-stage as the Run team went about its task. Run creatives and merchandise were churned out at a frenetic pace keeping the messaging singular.

'NEON RUN' - POWAI FEST 2023

23rd Dec 2023

A great partnership was forged with Maple DTI, Apple's premium reseller, which became the chief sponsors of the Run. Decathlon, agreed to sponsor exciting prizes for Run winners in men, women, and kids' categories. Registration numbers on the leaderboard maintained its upward trajectory, climbing slowly initially and then rapidly, as the concept of the Night Run caught on within the community.

The Night Run team executed flawlessly, increasing the intensity of efforts with each passing day, and approaching corporates and residents within the community, with equal fervor. The social media campaign on Insta, FB, LinkedIn hit the right notes with Gift-A-Run program, video bytes by ace runners encouraging participation; ads and advertorials in Planet Powai, catchy billboards in high traffic locations and persuasive promotion within housing societies, RCBP and other networks helped. Corporates like Tata Projects and Quantum joined in with superb participation. General Mills, Milky Mist and EG Lifecare Services pitched in with exciting goodies for the runners.

The outcome of this frenzied activity and efforts by so many, was beyond expectation - the Run registrations reached its intended target a week before the event and the property was officially SOLD OUT! Meanwhile, operations for the Run progressed smoothly and Bib distribution commenced - all runners got an attractive neon yellow T-shirt, a personalized Bib and a goodie bag.

The Run Day dawned bright and pleasant. The beautiful environs of Hiranandani Powai were pulsating with the sounds and sights of RCBP's Powai Fest. Runners lined the Central Avenue of Powai in their neon yellow T-shirts, waiting for flag off, their energy and excitement adding to the spirited atmosphere. Guests of Honor, DG Arun Bhargava and Maple COO, Mrityunjaya Gupta, flagged off the Powai Night Run 2023 amidst much fanfare, music, and gaiety.

'NEON RUN' - POWAI FEST 2023

23rd Dec 2023

A throng of yellow pounded the streets under the clear, starry skies and tree lined avenues of Hiranandani Powai, as the runners made their way on the route. The Run route threw up some stiff challenges to the runners with couple of steep inclines and hard to control traffic, but the Rotary Powai volunteers and promoters, did an excellent job of guiding the runners through the route safely.

At the Finish Line, it was a sight to behold - jubilant winners, experienced runners keeping pace with the first-timers, mother running with their young kids, families crossing the finish line together, senior citizens determinedly doing the entire route - a sense of accomplishment and purposeful experience enveloped the Run finishers. Indeed, it was a proud moment for all Run participants to receive their special I Am Finisher medal and savor the treasured experience of Running.

The Powai Night Run finally concluded with celebrating the triumph of all runners; Run winners received their exclusive awards and sponsors and partners were felicitated for their wonderful support. However, the true heroes of the moment were all the members of the Powai Night Run Team, without whom this Run would not have been possible! We salute them all!

WHEN I STOPPED DYING

Latha Vanamali

Yes, I have stopped dying.

And this is not the first time. Done many times and restarted. It's a kind of joke among my friends....oh! Wait and see! She will start dying again.

But friends, believe me, this time i will not start. It's my promise.

In any case i would like to share my experience in the last two months.

Every time I look at myself with patches of grey hair, my clouding glory 🙄 around my temple, I cringe.

I have heard people saying " She looks so graceful with her grey hair" for other ladies who have stopped dying.

When will I start looking graceful is my unanswered question. 🙄 When I take a walk in the morning, I feel as though my acquaintances look at me with a wierd look. Are they thinking "OMG. She looks so different suddenly "? May be... probably...no certainly.

The other day when I came near the lift, the security guy came and opened the door for me. Was he doing this earlier?? I asked my hubby.He coolly said " Yes, ever since you have become a part of the MC". How wierd! I had not noticed it. I asked him, "Are you sure? Is he doing it because I really look old and need assistance?"

The other day we were attending our friend's 60th birthday party. Someone behind me shouted "Hi. Gorgeous and evergreen girl!". I was hundred percent sure it was for me because i got that compliment all my life. But no....it was not for me at all. My evening was ruined for sure.

Now a days my mind is never at rest. Always trying to read others 's mind or trying to read between lines. When I look at older ladies who are still flaunting their jet black hair, my mind questions me, "Who told you to stop?"

WHEN I STOPPED DYING

Latha Vanamali

Finally I got fed up and decided to dye again. Mixed my hair dye in a bowl and started to apply my first stroke.

"Wait, what's wrong with you!". Now, who could that be! Oh! It's none other than my inner self.

It continued. "Be strong for once. Breaking promises is not good
What's eating you? You are sad because you look old? So what? Aren't you old?
So look it. Not a big deal.

Do you really want to look graceful? That doesn't happen by your coloured hair.
Be confident. Be sure of yourself. Impress others with your wisdom of decades. And watch the admiration.

Ok...let's say you don't get compliments anymore. So? Is that the end of the world?
Not at all.

Take care of your health. Flaunt your healthy glow. Take care of your inner peace and show off at your sparkling eyes. Be strong. Stop dying".

So, now I am working on my confidence, health and inner peace.
Don't you dare try to change me.

January is VOCATIONAL SERVICE. Please enjoy a short history about Vocation Service, and it's importance in Rotary club life...

January is Vocational Service Month on the Rotary calendar. Vocational Service is at the heart of Rotary, which was founded on the classification system of membership. Business and professional life are the bedrock of Rotary, and Vocational Service is a major force in developing and mentoring young professionals .

A Short History Lesson honour, integrity, and trustworthiness in business.

Originally only one representative from each business or profession was invited to join a club. Paul Harris felt that if several members of the same profession were to join, they would either sit together and "talk shop" or compete against each other for other members' business. The idea of "trade-boosting" was gradually eliminated and by 1912, Rotarians were no longer required to exchange business with one another.

The Forgotten Avenue of Service

Of Rotary's five Avenues of Service* - Club, Vocational, Community, and International - Vocational is difficult to define, so it is sometimes called the "Forgotten Avenue of Service". One reason is Club, Community, International and Youth Service activities usually involve groups of Rotarians. They enjoy the fellowship of Club Service, the satisfaction of serving the needs of their communities, and the hope that their International Service promotes world peace and understanding. But Vocational Service - the second Avenue of Service -- is generally conducted by individual members.

A name badge from the 1928 Rotary International Convention features Rotary's mottoes.

Service Above Self

Rotary's early leaders often cited the Golden Rule - "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you" - as the guiding principle of Rotary's Vocational Service. By the time the National Association of Rotary Clubs held its first convention in 1910, the networking emphasis had begun to shift. The majority of clubs told the new Civic Committee that Rotary should move from being a booster club to improving their communities. The concept of "he profits most who serves his fellows best" became "he profits most who serves best". This idea morphed into "Service, not Self" and finally, it became the Rotary slogan we know today -- "Service Above Self".

In 1940, Rotary International defined the Object of Vocational Service "to encourage and foster: high ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; the dignifying by each Rotarian of his occupation as an opportunity to serve society." Today's Rotarians still pride themselves on being able to use their professional stature and knowledge to make things happen worldwide, wherever there is a need for change.

The Rotary Code of Ethics

Back in 1912, when Glenn Mead succeeded Paul Harris as President of Rotary International, he recommended a code of business ethics be formulated to contribute to the advancement of business morality. At that time, there were no consumer protection laws or truth-in-advertising statutes. Fraudulent and deceptive business practices were the norm. The unwritten law was caveat emptor, "Let the buyer beware." Since the adoption of the Rotary Code of Ethics in 1915, at least 145 national industrial codes of conduct practice have been adopted as a direct result of the influence of Rotarians.

A name badge from the 1928 Rotary International Convention features Rotary's mottoes.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST of the things we think, say or do

- I. Is it the TRUTH?
- II. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- III. Will it build GOODWILL & BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- IV. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

The Four-Way Test

Rotary's current code of ethical conduct - The Four-Way Test - was developed during the Great Depression, by a Rotarian, Herb Taylor, from the United States, as a four-part ethical guideline that helped him rescue a beleaguered business. The code's four points are simple and direct - "Of all the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?"

The Four-Way Test was officially adopted by Rotary in 1943 and has been translated into the languages of over 100 countries. It appears on highway billboards, in schoolrooms and on the walls of businesses, in labour contracts, courtrooms and halls of government. It's even on the moon, in the form of a Four-Way Test pin planted on the surface by astronaut
