ANNIVERSARY MONTH

☀️ The month of February is very special in the Rotary calendar because it includes the anniversary of the first meeting of Rotary held on February 23, 1905, in Chicago. That day is now designated as the "World Understanding and Peace Day".

On February 23, 2026 Rotary celebrates the 121st anniversary of the first Rotary club meeting. This is an opportunity for Rotary clubs and districts to promote Rotary's public image.

PEACE BUILDING & CONFLICT PREVENTION...

Rotary International promotes peacebuilding and conflict prevention as a core area of focus, addressing root causes like poverty, inequality, and lack of education through community service, education, and advocacy. They train leaders, fund peace fellowships, and support local initiatives to create lasting, sustainable peace.

Key components of Rotary's approach include

Rotary Peace Centers: Partnering with universities worldwide, these centers have trained over 1,300 fellows for careers in peace, conflict resolution, and international relations.

Addressing Root Causes: Projects target the structural causes of conflict, such as ethnic tensions, lack of resources, and economic inequality.

Peace Fellowships: Fully funded scholarships for master's degrees or professional certificates in peace and development studies are awarded annually.

Local Action: Rotarians work as mediators, support refugees, and foster community dialogue to prevent violence.

On 17.2.2026, Tuesday Rotary Club of Salem Gugai celebrated Valentine's Day with a beautifully spontaneous event that turned out to be one of the most cherished moments of the year. We were honored to have Rotaractor Bhanu Priya, a renowned couple psychologist, as our guest speaker. She delivered a crisp, impactful talk on "Couple Wellness Goals", outlining six essential goals for nurturing healthy relationships. Her session was short yet deeply meaningful, resonating with couples of all ages, especially the younger participants, who found it incredibly useful and inspiring. The evening continued with fun and engaging games with enthusiastic participation from many couples, adding laughter and joy to the celebration. The event concluded with a lavish dinner, where members and Anns bonded over great food and even greater conversations. This was the first-ever Valentine's Day celebration turned out to be a resounding success. The smiles, laughter, and heartfelt feedback from members and Anns made it truly unforgettable.

COUPLE WELLNESS GOAL

Couple wellness is the intentional effort two partners make to maintain emotional, communication, mental, financial, and physical health within their relationship.

Move from “just staying together” to **growing together intentionally**.

1. EMOTIONAL WELLNESS

Creating emotional safety where both partners feel heard, valued, and secure.

Key Focus Areas: Emotional safety, Vulnerability, Empathy, Validation

Wellness Goals: Weekly emotional check-in (15–20 mins), Use “I feel” statements instead of blame, Validate before offering solutions, Apologize quickly and sincerely

Warning Signs: Walking on eggshells, Fear of expressing feelings, Dismissed emotions, Emotional withdrawal

Outcome: Stronger intimacy, reduced resentment, deeper connection.

2. COMMUNICATION WELLNESS

Healthy exchange of thoughts, needs, and concerns with clarity and respect.

Key Focus Areas: Active listening, Tone control, Timing, Clarity

Wellness Goals: No interrupting rule, No name-calling rule, Clarify before reacting (“What I hear you saying is...”), Monthly relationship check-in

Common Mistakes: Texting serious issues, Bringing up the past, Defensive responses, Assuming instead of asking

Outcome: Reduced misunderstandings, quicker conflict resolution.

GOOD

3. FINANCIAL WELLNESS

Shared financial clarity, transparency, and planning.

Key Focus Areas: Budgeting, Saving, Debt management

Wellness Goals: Monthly money meeting, Shared financial goals (vacation, house, emergency fund), Transparency about income and expenses, Respecting different money personalities

Warning Signs: Secret spending, Avoiding money discussions, Blame during financial stress, Financial power imbalance

Outcome: Less tension, increased trust, stronger teamwork.

4. MENTAL WELLNESS

Protecting psychological health individually and as a couple.

Key Focus Areas: Stress management, Personal growth, Emotional regulation, Support during anxiety/depression

Wellness Goals: Ask daily: "How are you really doing?", Encourage therapy if needed, Practice stress-reduction habits together, Respect mental rest time

Warning Signs: Emotional shutdown, Irritability without communication, Using partner as emotional punching bag, Ignoring burnout

Outcome: Resilience during life challenges.

5. CONFLICT WELLNESS

Definition: Healthy handling of disagreements without damaging the relationship.

Key Focus Areas: Emotional control, Respectful disagreement, Repair process

Wellness Rules: No name-calling, No bringing up past resolved issues, No threats of breakup/divorce during arguments, Take a 20-minute cool-off if needed, Always return to resolve

Key Phrase: "It's us vs. the problem."

Outcome: Faster recovery after conflict, less emotional damage.

Service
Above Self

6. INTIMACY WELLNESS

Definition: Maintaining emotional, physical, and romantic closeness.

Types of Intimacy: Emotional intimacy, Physical intimacy, Intellectual intimacy, Experiential intimacy (shared activities)

Wellness Goals: Weekly date night (device-free), Daily affection (hug, kiss, touch), Honest conversations about needs, Flirt intentionally

Warning Signs: Feeling like roommates, Lack of affection, Avoiding physical closeness, Emotional distance

Outcome: Stronger bond, deeper attachment, increased satisfaction.

QUICK SUMMARY FRAMEWORK (FOR CLOSING)

Healthy couples intentionally work on:

1. Emotional safety, 2. Clear communication, 3. Financial alignment
4. Mental support, 5. Healthy conflict, 6. Consistent intimacy

Final Core Message:

Couple wellness is not about perfection.

It is about: Consistency, Respect, Growth, Intentional effort

Healthy relationships don't happen automatically.

They happen deliberately.

When two people commit to wellness in these six areas, they create stability, peace, and long-term strength.

Spouses in FULL BLOOM

“A New Beginning Begins the Moment You Believe in Yourself.”

Every woman carries within her the strength to pause, restart, and rise stronger than before. I am one among many who chose to rediscover my path with courage, hope, and determination.

I am Preethi – a proud wife to Rotarian and Past President Adv. Madhan, the strong man behind my journey and a proud & loving mother to Mithiran and Pavithiran.

My journey, like many women, began with prioritising family and nurturing a loving home. While I embraced my role as a homemaker wholeheartedly, I always believed that learning and growth should never stop.

An engineering graduate by qualification and a lifelong learner by passion, I decided to restart my professional journey after dedicating important years to my family. This step was possible because of the immense support and encouragement from my husband, who believed in my abilities and stood beside me with confidence and trust. His understanding and motivation gave me the courage to step forward again.

My children, Mithiran and Pavithiran, are my greatest motivation. They have grown up watching their mother learn, work, teach, and manage responsibilities. I strongly believe it is especially important for young boys to see and understand how a woman works, leads, and balances multiple roles.

When boys grow up respecting their mother's efforts and ambitions, they naturally grow into men who respect women in society. This, to me, is one of the most meaningful lessons I can give my children.

“My journey began with my children; teaching them phonics at home became the seed that grew into my professional path.”

Today, I am a passionate Phonics and Grammar Trainer, guiding young learners to build strong reading and communication skills through my evening tuition classes. Education empowers confidence, and I take pride in shaping young minds with strong foundations.

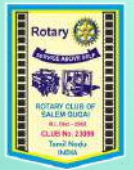

Alongside teaching, I work as a Social Media Manager and Personal Branding Strategist, helping entrepreneurs and business owners build their digital presence and confidently share their stories with the world. Supporting others in their growth journey has become an extension of my own.

As a social media manager, I further expanded my journey by taking on multiple creative and strategic roles through The Market Tree, shaping myself as a complete digital professional. Beyond managing social media, I evolved as a content creator, writer, editor, influencer, and anchor – helping brands and business owners build their identity and visibility in the digital world. This journey not only strengthened my professional growth but also shaped me into a confident digital creator and strategist.

I strongly believe in learning and sharing knowledge; hence, I also conduct free Canva classes for women who are eager to learn and grow but lack opportunities.

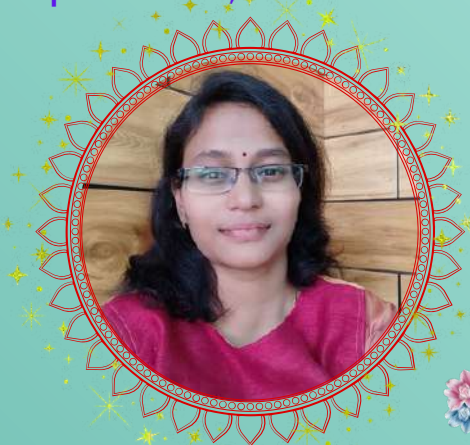

Empowering women with digital skills and confidence gives me immense satisfaction, as I believe when one woman grows, she inspires many more to rise.

Even while managing professional responsibilities, I continue to cherish my most important role – being a homemaker and a mother. Balancing family and career has strengthened my resilience, patience, and belief in myself.

I love exploring new skills, embracing new opportunities, and constantly evolving. Restarting my career was not merely about work – it was about rediscovering my confidence and proving that it is never too late to begin again.

“When a woman chooses to restart, she doesn’t just rebuild her career – she rebuilds her confidence, her dreams, and her identity.”

If my journey inspires even one woman to believe in her potential and take that first step forward, I consider it my true achievement.
