GLOBAL HANDS, LOCAL HEALING ENDOSCOPY CENTRE HANDOVER AT NEW SHETH P.T. HOSPITAL

Rotary Club of Surat, formally handed over the Gastrointestinal Endoscopy Centre to New Sheth P.T. Multispeciality Hospital, Adajan, Surat, on Sunday, 11th May 2025, as part of its Global Grant Project (#2574796). This initiative was made possible through the contribution of international partner Rotary Club of Emory Druid Hills (USA) and the support of The Rotary Foundation, RID 3060, Rotary Club of Singapore, Madanben Babubhai Jariwala, and Bhavaniben Narendrakumar Mehta. The project reflects Rotary's commitment to improving access to essential healthcare through collaborative efforts.

The event was attended by members of the Rotary Club of Surat, representatives of the hospital trust, medical professionals, donor families, and invited guests, all of whom came together to mark the launch of this important service.

The programme began with the lighting of the lamp and a prayer led by Prof. Ratna Jadhavani, setting a peaceful tone for the morning.

Rtn. Jay Mistry, President of Rotary Club of Surat, gave the welcome address, thanking all global grant partners and emphasising Rotary's focus on sustainable healthcare initiatives. Mr. Sunil Modi, President of the Hospital Trust, welcomed guests on behalf of the hospital and appreciated Rotary's contribution to enhancing the facility. Rtn. Yatish Parekh, representing the hospital trust, shared the background and journey of the hospital's community work.

PP Nikhil Madrasi introduced and acknowledged the presence of all supporters and partners. Primary Contact PP Dr. Ajay Mahajan presented a summary of the project and its impact as part of Rotary's ongoing service efforts. Dr. Madhukar Parikh, representing the hospital, spoke about the institution's healthcare services for the community. Dr. Hitesh Shah shared the importance and benefits of the newly installed endoscopy equipment.

International partners Rtn. Praveen Kakadia and Rtn. Mukundan AP shared their thoughts and extended their encouragement to the team in Surat.

The programme also featured the speeches by DG Rtn. Tushar Shah, DGE Rtn. Amardeep Buneet, and DGN Rtn. Nilesh Shah, who appreciated the joint efforts of all clubs and contributors. The formal handover of the equipment was carried out with applause from all present, marking the successful completion of the project. As a gesture of appreciation, Rotary mementoes (plants) and certificates were presented to guests.

Rtn. Kashyap Mehta proposed the vote of thanks. The event coordination was supported by Dr. Radhika Jariwala and Supervisor Shri Chetan Desai and team. A decorative rangoli was created for the occasion by Smt. Karpurika Desai, Smt. Darshita Soni, and Smt. Rashmiben. The programme was smoothly conducted by Smt. Sushmaben Soni, who served as the compere.

AMBASSADOR OF GOODWILL

As part of the ongoing Global Grant Project initiatives, the international partner from Rotary Club of Singapore visited Surat on Saturday, 10th May 2025. The visit involved a series of meaningful engagements with key Rotary-supported projects and community partners.

The programme included a tour of a local Jari Processing Factory, offering insights into Surat's traditional industry. At Gurunanak Dharmarth Hospital, Rotary-supported healthcare services were reviewed, followed by a visit to Bhartimaiya Physiotherapy Centre to observe specialised child treatment programmes.

The delegation then visited the Southern Gujarat Chamber of Commerce and Industry to explore potential collaboration opportunities. The day concluded at Uttar Buniyadi Vidhyalay, Amalsadi with the formal handover of a sanitary pad disposal unit, reinforcing Rotary's commitment to hygiene and girl child welfare.

The visit was supported by President Jai Mistry, Hon. Sec. Vineet Panchal, PE Kundan Shah, PP Dr. Ajay Mahajan, PP Bhupendra Jariwala, PP Tejas Gandhi, Rtn Dr. Neeta Gandhi, IPP Sandip Nanavati, PP Nikhil Madrasi, Rtn Meghal Baxi, PP Kamal Gandhi & Rtn Nilesh Jariwala.

On Sunday, 11th May 2025, at Rotary Hall, a flag exchange ceremony was held with GG international partners Rtn. Mukundan (RC Singapore, RI Dist. 3310) and Rtn. Pravin Kakadia (RC Emory Druid Hills, USA, RI Dist. 6900). The event was graced by President Jai Mistry, Hon. Secretary Vineet Panchal, PP Bhupendra Jariwala, PP Tejas Gandhi, Rtn. Rupesh Jariwala, Rtn. Meghal Baxi, and President Harsh Merchant of the Rotaract Club of Surat Community.

BAL AANGANWADI

On Saturday, 10th May 2025 healthy meals were distributed to 30 children at Pal Bal Aanganwadi, sponsored by Rtn. Jai Mistry and volunteered by First Lady Shilpa Mistry

HUMF PROJECT : EMPOWERING EXPECTANT MOTHERS

HUMF, organised by RC Surat on Tuesday, 13th May 2025, provided nutritional kits to four expectant women, with Rtn. Jagruti Gandhi volunteering for the cause. A dedicated team of physiotherapists Dr. Isha Modi and Dr. Vishwa Prajapati from Shree Bhartimaiya Physiotherapy College offered valuable guidance to the beneficiaries.
