UNITED WE PROGRESS, DIVIDED WE PAUSE

The tricolour that fluttered high on 15th August has now settled back into our daily rhythm. While we proudly marked the 79th Independence Day, the deeper question remains – what does freedom mean in today's interdependent world?

Our challenges are no longer colonial chains, but trade wars, economic rivalries, and rising walls. The irony is striking – at a time when humanity needs collaboration to address poverty, climate change, and inequality, many nations are choosing competition over cooperation.

This is where Rotary offers hope. With a family spread across 200 countries, Rotary proves that dialogue, goodwill and service succeed where politics often falters. Our objectives – peace, understanding, and equitable development – are not distant ideals but urgent calls of our time.

Independence reminds us of the power of collective struggle. Today, the same spirit is needed not to fight each other, but to fight division. Rotary shows that when hands join across borders, progress becomes shared, prosperity becomes inclusive, and peace becomes possible.

The flag may have been lowered, but its call remains: let us rise together, for in unity lies our true independence.

Even after seventy-nine years, the tricolour speaks:

*Freedom is not walls that divide, but bridges that unite.
Rotary carries that message to the world.*

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

Of the things we think, say or do:

- first Is it the TRUTH?
- second Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- third Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- fourth Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
