THE HEARTBEAT WE SHARE

A club is not its meetings. It is its pulse. This week, that pulse beat strongest around a simple truth: strong hearts, strong lungs. But Rotary has always understood anatomy in its own way. Here, the heart is a question asked four ways before any decision. The lungs are the breath we take together before exhaling service.

That pulse carried across oceans — not in miles, but in meals shared, flags exchanged, the easy laughter that makes strangers feel familiar. This is not diplomacy. It is discovery. Closer to home, it reached small hands receiving nourishment, mothers finding support. No spotlight. No ceremony. Just the quiet arithmetic of care adding up.

Look closely at any member and you will find many journeys within — the professional who leads, the artist who creates, the traveller who learns. Rotary does not pause at one project or one year; it continues in gestures, relationships, the steady unfolding of one life influencing another.

We may not be perfect. But we are present.

We ask the Four-Way Test. We trust the path. We believe that a world strengthened begins exactly here — with one steady heartbeat passing to another.

That is enough. That is Rotary.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

Rotary  THE FOUR-WAY TEST
Of the things we think, say or do:

- first Is it the TRUTH?
- second Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- third Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- fourth Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
