15th November – Book Talk on “Pratishruti”

Speaker : Shri Hiren Vachhani

Speaker shared the essence of Dhruv Bhatt's novel Pratishruti, which reflects the life, vows, and inner journey of Bhishma Pitamah. His clear and engaging narration made the audience connect deeply with the spirit of the book.

Rotary Participation : Rtn. Pravin Patel, Rtn. Nilesh Bhojani, Rtn. Jaydev Shah, Rtn. Anup Joshi, Ann Bindu Shah, and several Greaterians attended, adding warmth and enthusiasm to the session.

16th November (Morning) – Storytelling Session

Storyteller : Shri Rajak Unadpotra

A joyful and interactive storytelling event that ignited imagination among children.

Thanks to : Rtn. Nilesh Bhojani for coordination

Attendees : Nilesh Bhojani, Bhavesh Mehta, Anup Joshi, Vipul Kotak, Ann Bindu Shah, Kruti Joshi, Kinjal Kotak.

16th November (Morning) – Desi Ramato (Traditional Games)

Children and adults enjoyed nostalgic traditional games organized by Rotary Greater.

17th November – Letter Writing to the loved ones

The Letter Writing Activity turned out to be a beautiful blend of nostalgia and creativity. Both elders and a few children participated, enjoying the charm of handwritten communication. The event used inland letters for the competition, and all letters will be posted to the designated recipients. All letters were read by Ann Neha Sheth, who thoughtfully selected the winners. One heartfelt highlight was a woman who wrote a letter to herself — a touching and unique moment that added emotional depth to the activity.

18th November – Library Visit & Movie Show for Kids

A special Baby's Day Out was organized for children from RMC Schools. Kids enjoyed a fun-filled library visit, followed by a delightful movie-watching session that brought smiles, laughter, and excitement. It was a heartwarming initiative that introduced young minds to the joy of books and community activities.

19th November – Book Search Competition

35 enthusiastic participants joined this exciting competition. Each participant received two chits (one Gujarati and one English book name) and had to locate both books from the library racks. Top three winners were awarded by Rotary Greater. Attendees : Rtn. Jaydev Shah, Anup Joshi, Rajen Shah, Ann Bindu Shah.

A meaningful effort by Rotary Greater—spreading awareness, breaking taboos, and nurturing healthier, informed young girls in our community.

“Kismey Kitna Hai Dum” – A Fun-filled Evening

On 13th November, the exciting game show “Kismey Kitna Hai Dum” was beautifully organized by Rotarians Kunal Mehta and Apoorva Modi.

The event was wonderfully managed by the Annets of Rotary Greater, who confidently took up leadership roles and added vibrant energy to the evening.

Even the crucial roles of Rotary Prayer & Rotary 4 way test were done by Annets. The Rotary Prayer was addressed by Annet Krisha Killol Kariya & 4 way test was Recited by Annet Kashish Mangtani

The atmosphere was light, lively, and thoroughly entertaining — a perfect fellowship meet filled with smiles and fun moments.

A special appreciation to the organisers and the young team for making the evening truly memorable with their creativity and flawless execution.

Sneh Milan – An Evening of Warmth & Togetherness

Sneh Milan is a tradition rooted in Indian culture, symbolizing unity, joy, and the value of relationships.

On 2nd November, the Sneha Milan Fellowship Meet was initially planned at Rtn Yogesh Ghodasra's Farm — The Ghodasra Farm but due to bad weather and unavoidable circumstances, the venue was shifted to Hotel Sarovar Portico. The Rotarians came together for a wonderful evening filled with warm greetings, New Year wishes, and joyful fellowship moments.

The meet concluded with a delightful dinner, adding flavour and fun to the beautiful gathering.

Grooming Global Ambassadors: Interview Training Session

Rotary Club of Rajkot Greater organised an insightful Interview Training Session at Rotary Greater Bhavan to prepare IYE & NGSE students for confidently facing their upcoming selection interviews.

Mentors for the Session:

- * PP Rtn. Nilesh Sheth
- * PP Rtn. Darshan Lakhani

Both senior Rotarians shared powerful tips on communication, body language, clarity of thought, and presenting oneself effectively—benefiting both students and their parents.

Special Appreciation: PP Rtn. Nilesh Sheth for his dedicated mentoring and constant support in shaping future youth ambassadors.

Rotary Greater continues to empower young achievers with the skills and confidence needed to shine globally.

District 3060 Roars to Victory!
