Street Jalsa

The street Jalsa is indeed fascinating with full of fun and fantasies.

It is proud for the club to be a part of it when thousands of the citizens went on to the roads to have the Sunday morning to gather the best of enjoyment . The road leading to the Rupani was Jam packed. The Games like Lemons and spoon and all other games of past years were played on the streets. Zumba, Aerobics, Yoga, Dance, Marbles, Khokho Lungadi, Nargelio were the added attractions. Rangolies and drawings made the event more colorful.

Message from Rotary foundation which is send to every member of Rotary

Through your previous support for The Rotary Foundation, you have made a significant impact on the lives of people across the globe. We hope that you'll consider giving the gift of Rotary once again. As we embark on new initiatives and maintain our commitment to creating positive change, your renewed support can help make an even greater difference.

The Foundation will use your gift to support the work of members who implement sustainable solutions to the world's most pressing needs. But to make these projects possible, we need help from people like you.

With your renewed support, we can work with communities to improve people's lives close to home and far away. An additional gift today can supply filters to clean people's drinking water, protect children from diseases like polio, help families replace livestock after disasters, or supply medical equipment that gives newborns a healthy start.

Please consider donating again and giving the gift of Rotary this year.

We meet every Friday at Rotary Service Centre, Ghogha Circle, Bhavnagar - Fellowship : 8.30 p.m.; Meeting : 9.00 p.m.

Fostering Rotary in Rotarians through RLI - Courtesy :: From Rotary News -

Addressing the Rotary Leadership Institute (RLI) South Asia meet in Chennai, RLI South Asia chair PRID Kamal Sanghvi, said, "We must encourage and foster the ideals of Rotary in everyone. An informed Rotarian is an asset to Rotary, he will inspire people around him to join us and serve the world better in all possible ways. So be well informed and cautious in what you deliver. And what you impart to the Rotarians must be universal with no regional differences."

RID AnirudhaRoychowdhury spoke about declining membership, continuity of leadership and adaptability to the new Rotary world. He urged the delegates to "organise RLI for green Rotarians." Congratulating the RLI members he said, "you are making the organisation stronger by engraving Rotary thoughts in the minds of Rotarians."

RLI international chair PRID Michael McGovern, in an AV message said, "Rotary needs leaders who can understand its objectives and what those mean — not just the words," The meet aimed to explore ways to promote RLI in every region and discussed challenges the members face, and brainstormed solutions.

"RLI is a multidistrict, grassroots leadership development programme recommended by the RI Board and was strongly endorsed by the CoL at three of its triennial meetings," said RID 3232 PDG A Subramaniam, regional chair for zone 5. The RI training at the International Assembly is crucial to prepare the DGEs and other district officers for their roles. The same is true for PETS and SETS. But RLI is a foundation course to transform a member into a Rotarian, and make him more knowledgeable about Rotary.

Citing an ongoing conflict of opinion regarding districts adopting RLI as a programme, he explained that the misunderstanding is in the word 'leadership'. "If it was Rotary Learning Institute instead of Rotary Leadership Institute it would have received better support from all districts," he said.

RLI vice-chair PDG George Sundararaj added that RLI will help in membership retention and groom everyone for leadership roles. RLI International training leader PDG Frank Wargo (US) was a special invitee at the meet. Membership planning, TRF, DEI, strategic planning, public image, club communication and empowering Rotaract were some of the topics discussed at the meet.

Several district governors, DGEs and DGNs were among the 175 delegates who attended the meet. Zonal chairs PDGs Sivarraj (zone 4), DilipPattanaik (zone 6) and JorsonFernandez (zone 7), RLI advisors BinodKhaitan and PDG UlhasKolhatkar, and secretaries PDG Arun Kumar Gupta and Mohan Kumar were the resource persons.
