Sangkoo Yun is selected to be 2026-27 Rotary International president

Sangkoo Yun, of the Rotary Club of Sae Hanyang, Seoul, Korea, is the selection of the nominating committee to become Rotary International's president for 2026-27. He will be officially declared the president-nominee on 15 September if no other candidates challenge him.

Yun received his bachelor's and master's degrees from the Syracuse University School of Architecture in the U.S. and an honorary doctoral degree from The University of Edinburgh, Scotland. He is the founder and CEO of Dongsuh Corp., which engineers and markets architectural materials, and the president of Youngan Corp., which operates in real estate and financial investment. He is involved in many civic organizations and has a special interest in the preservation of cultural heritage.

A Rotary member since 1987, when he was a charter member of the Rotary Club of Sae Hanyang, Yun has served Rotary International as a director, trustee, committee member and chair, and RI learning facilitator. He served for eight years as co-chair of the Keep Mongolia Green Project, by Korean members of Rotary. His RI committee roles include the Board Administration Committee (2013-15, vice chair 2014-15), the International Assembly Committee (vice chair, 2020-21), and the End Polio Now Countdown to History Campaign Committee (regional vice chair, 2023-27). He also served on The Rotary Foundation's Executive Committee (2019-22, chair 2020-21) and Programs Committee (2019-22, chair 2020-22).

Yun received The Rotary Foundation's Distinguished Service Award in 2021-22. He was appointed an Officer of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire by Queen Elizabeth II, awarded the Friendship Medal by the president of Mongolia, and recognized for distinguished services by the president and prime minister of Korea. He is a veteran of the Republic of Korea Army and an emeritus elder at Andong Presbyterian Church.

Yun and his spouse, Eunsun, are Rotary Foundation Benefactors, Major Donors, and members of the Arch Klumph Society, the Paul Harris Society, and the Bequest Society. They have two children.

Rotarian's Corner

“We make a living by what we get,
but we make a life by what we give.”

The Rotary stands as a symbol of service, leadership, and community. Since its inception, Rotary has grown into an international network of individuals dedicated to fostering positive change and addressing some of the world's most pressing challenges. But what makes Rotary truly special is its unwavering commitment to "Service Above Self," a principle that guides every project, meeting, and initiative undertaken by its members.

The unique projects of RC Bharuch highlight the remarkable achievements of our members and the profound impact of our collective actions. They remind us of the power of Rotary to bring together individuals from diverse backgrounds to work towards common goals. It is through this unity and shared vision that we can achieve lasting change.

Our Rotary club of Bharuch has always been a beacon of hope and a catalyst for positive change within our community and beyond. From supporting local schools and healthcare initiatives to promoting environmental sustainability and economic empowerment, Rotary club of Bharuch has always touched countless lives.

As we look to the future, let us be inspired by the accomplishments of the past and motivated by the challenges ahead. Together, we can continue to build a world where peace, goodwill, and understanding prevail.

Let us continue to make a difference, one project, one community, one life at a time.

Yours in Rotary,

- Rtn. Dr. Parth Barot (RCC Chair)
